The Word of God, From Days of Old

The Word of God, from days of old
The story of our Saviour told;
That in our sin and misery
Our hope and life our faith might see.

For Judah's lion wins the strife
And reigns o'er death to give us life.
For as God promised Abraham,
In love, He would provide the Lamb.

And so on wood two sons were laid,
The one was spared, the other paid;
No blood of Isaac would be shed,
God's only Son would die instead.

The promise God, to Abram, gave,
That from his seed, all He would save,
God did fulfill – when died His Son
And we from sin and death were won.

To Thee, eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done
Whom by the cross Thou dost restore,
Preserve, and govern evermore.
