The Word of God, From Days of Old

The Word of God from days of old
The story of our Saviour told;
That in our sin and misery
Our hope and life our faith might see.

For Judah's lion wins the strife
And reigns o'er death to give us life.
Like Samson, Christ great strength employed,
And conquered hell, its gates destroyed.

For though the world, with strength and might,
And sin and hell against us fight;
The stronger man did intercede,
To rescue us from ev'ry need.

Poor though I be, despised, forgot,
Yet God, my God, forgets me not;
And he is safe and must succeed
For whom the Lord vouchsafes to plead.

To Thee, eternal Three in One,
Let homage meet by all be done
Whom by the cross Thou dost restore,
Preserve, and govern evermore.
